

Reference standard: causative pathogens adjudicated by the treating infectious-diseases physicians, with versioned revisions.
The scoring rules were developed with these labels visible, so neither evaluation cohort is an untouched external test set.
Both cohorts required at least one adjudicated pathogen; patients whose final diagnosis was not pulmonary infection were not evaluated.